*Strange,
the way things happen.
Friends, companions, lovers drift ever by with the tide.
Passing,
yet for a brief instant reaching out and touching leaving memories behind.*

A "rebuilding year" is the best way to describe the 1977 campaign. The Huskies suffered through a 3-7 season largely induced by staggering losses to graduation and injury. Tech finished with a share of last place in the Northern Intercollegiate Conference and yet an unusually high number of freshman letterwinners is a reassuring sign that the 1977 season was just a temporary aberration in the Husky football tradition.

Youth and inexperience were prevalent factors in the inconsistent play of the squad. The Huskies struggled through the first two games at home and then they surprised everyone by upsetting a heavily favored Grand Valley State team on the road. Next weekend Tech convincingly shut out the Warriors at Winona State. Just when the Huskies seemed to be making a comeback, four more losses followed; one of these defeats saw Southwest State snap a 22-game losing streak by upsetting the Huskies.

Coach Kapp's youngsters faced adversity with undaunted character. Another trip downstate produced a great win of an exciting nip and tuck battle with Ferris State. The season finale went right down to the wire and once again the Huskies ended up short.

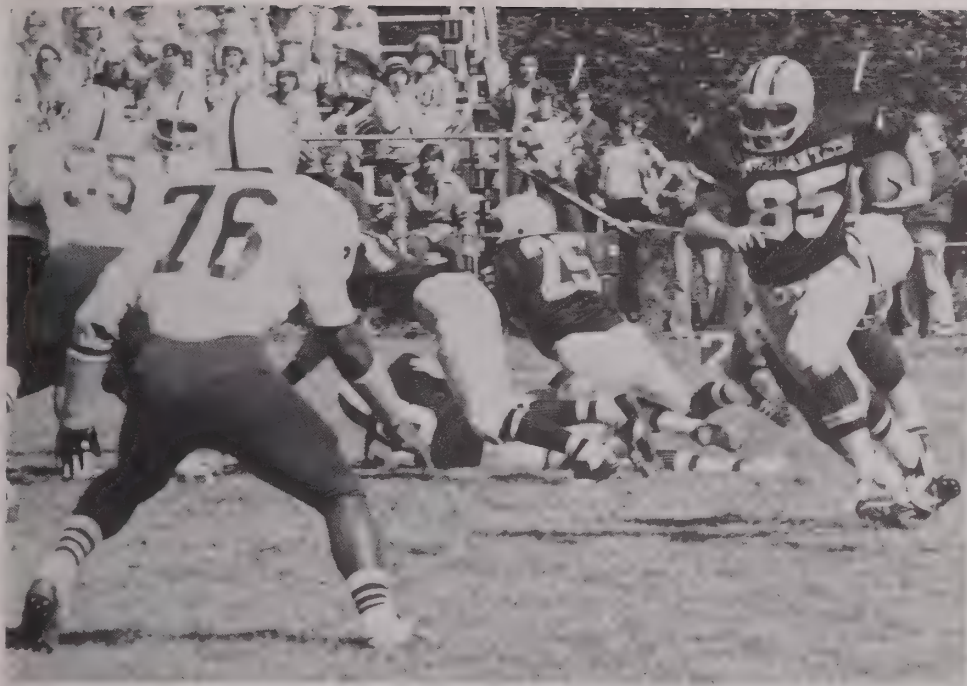

This year might be remembered as the one Tech lost all their home games. Sadly enough, the Huskies fought very hard and treated the fans to some impressive individual performances. They were a contender in every game but too often the big play was the mortal blow.

Senior center Glenn Smith was voted Most Valuable Player and first team all-conference. Also selected for all-conference honors were Bill Bombich, Steve Everson, Don Lukas, and Mike Schiffer.

It was a year of solid defense, starting with the hard-checking forwards and anchored by two excellent goaltenders. Yet there were no superstars; if there were any superstars it would have to be the team as a whole. The team, their strong alliance on the ice, reflected in friendship off, nearly took second in the Western Collegiate Hockey Association after being cast early as a fourth place team at best.

As happened last year, they were champions at the Great Lakes Invitational in Detroit's Olympia Stadium. But unlike the year before, there were smiles coming from the locker room instead of tired players, cheers instead of noisy hair dryers, and much long talk instead of cold quotes. They had come together as a team.

Goalies Bruce Horsch and John Rockwell were the mainstays for the Huskies, coached by former Tech goalie Billy Rowe. Horsch, named the team's Most Valuable Player, finished off his senior year with a school record of 2,809 career saves. John Rockwell earned a shutout, as well as being named Most Improved Player.

Doug Young knew that there was more to being Captain than telling everyone to pick up their towels, so he skated and faked his 200-pound frame past most teams in the league. Young shared top defenseman honors with Paul Jensen, who had more goals than any other defenseman.

It was assistant coach Glen Weller's last season for Tech. Before he left, though, he gave us a few of the best freshmen to be found. Tom "Muddy" Watters gained recognition for a tough defense, plus a strong gradepoint, being named top hockey Freshman Scholar-Athlete by his teammates.

But if it was a banner year for freshmen, the seniors had an even better one. Stu Ostlund shot two hat tricks, and Dana Decker led the team in goals scored against the other WCHA teams.

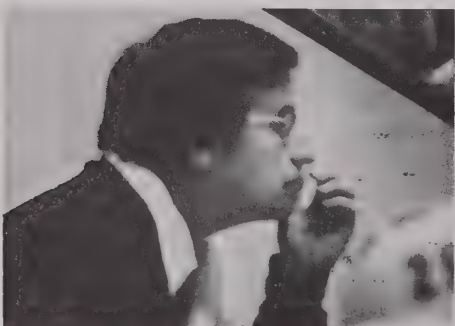

There might not have been any superstars, but there sure were a crowd of bright lights.

With some new freshman talent, the early season expectations for the volleyball team were very high. The season record of 8-18-2 does not show that the team was up against the stiffest competition that it has seen since its conception three short years ago. Such strong opponents were Grand Valley, Delta State, Lake Superior, UMD, and Calvin College, Hope, and Hillsdale in the state AIAW finals. Coach DePuydt was very proud of her team's performance against these schools, losing some matches in the third game by a five-point spread or less.

Inquiries about the Tech Volleyball team from prospective freshmen are high now that the program has established a reputation as a competitive team. Three seniors — Barb Brakora, Sue Korpela, and Liz Carney — will be lost to graduation. Their consistent contribution to the team will be missed, but volleyball fans can be assured that the 1978 squad will be a good competitive team.

Men's Basketball

The Northern Intercollegiate Conference basketball coaches picked the Michigan Tech Huskies to wind up in seventh place as a result of their efforts during the 1977-78 campaign. What the Huskies did was storm through their best season in 16 years enroute to a solid third place finish in the loop.

Tech won 10 of their first 14 games in a style that left the fans looking ahead to a possible tournament bid. Unfortunately, the Huskies never overcame a season long problem of winning on the road. Still, the men in silver and gold recorded an outstanding 14-10 mark and an 8-6 tally in the NIC.

For the second straight year Tech's team defense was ranked in the top ten nationally. The Huskies complemented this stinginess with an increased scoring output.

Much of the credit for this year's success goes to the younger players who matured much faster than anyone would have expected. The program has put together a string of three winning seasons and the future is excitingly bright.

Competitive basketball has finally returned to the Michigan Tech campus.

The idea of a Junior Varsity Basketball team was revived this year and turned out to be a very successful idea. The young Huskies racked up a season record of 14-2, facing the strong teams like the Suomi Lions, Northern Michigan's J.V. Wildcats, and Gogebic Community College twice.

Jim Jonske, Greg Adkins, and Brian Slater were three of the brightest lights for the J.V.s, and several of them moved up to Varsity status for part of the season.

Tennis

Standing: Val Brunell, Sue Grosvenor, Sally Tyson, Sharon Atkin, Paula McCaul, Amy Spence, Janet Kelly, Coach Kathy Cybulski. Kneeling: Allison Myshrall, Linda Kaufman, Mary Ellen Griffin, Kim Kuckhahn, Julie Dutcher.

After a rough start, the women's tennis team gained respectability as they grew more experienced, finishing with five wins and five losses in their second year at the Gates Tennis Center. Coach Kathy Cybulski was pleased with the effort the girls put forth, praising their play while under pressure.

Val Brunell finished her college career in the number one singles position. Backing her up in the number two spot was Julie Dutcher, having an outstanding year.

Next year the team hopes to be involved in conference collegiate play.

Tennis

The 1978 "Hammerin' Huskis" turned in another fine season as they compiled a 12-3 record and a second place finish in the Northern Intercollegiate Conference meet. UMD edged out Tech in that meet for the second straight year as they slipped by Tech in the last match.

This year's team was one of the strongest at Tech in recent years but the addition of UMD and Mankato State put more strength in the league, making it tougher for anyone to win the conference.

John "Wally" Wright, playing at number one singles most of the season ran up a 17-1 individual mark including his third straight number one NIC Singles title. Team captain Ron Schults finished up his college career in his best season ever with a 12-3 record and will be missed next year. At number three, transfer student Ralph Boozer posted a 16-2 record and a number three NIC singles title. Don Olson took the number four NIC title, while Karl Gugel at number five, and Chuck Nordeen, Ray Manning, Nick Knight, and Lee Sussman at number six had good seasons.

Coach Cox completed his 29th year as a coach at Tech and will coach one more season next spring. The Huskies are losing only two seniors, Ron Schults, and Nick Knight, and will have seven lettermen returning, so it will be a veteran squad that can hopefully give Coach Cox a NIC championship for a retirement present.

Skiing

Tech's Alpine racers and cross-country trackers unleashed their talents to produce fine finishes this season in the gates and on the tracks throughout the Midwest.

Proving they had the ability to burn, the men either won or were second in the giant slalom event, led by consistent top ten finishes of Dan Crites, Keith Everson, and Tom Crites.

The team had the potential to "go for it" in slalom and do well, but all too often this crash or burn technique found the boys in black on the snow.

Transfer student Dan Crites was chosen as MVP. The lone seniors, Keith Everson and Al Boutilier, closed out their racing careers with top team finishes in the last two meets of the season.

The women were led by sophomore

Shelby Seaton, who really came alive at the end of the season to make the All Mid-America team. The young team placed the same as the men in Midwest NCAA competition, third.

Senior Karen Henry was practically invincible in women's 5 kilometer cross-country, as she booked to first place in all regular season races. Karen ended up in the top 25% of the competitors at the National finals held in New Mexico.

Freshman sensation Milan Baic turned it on in the men's 15 km cross-country, leading his team to a Midwest championship and recording a 33rd place finish in the NCAA finals in New Hampshire. Seniors Carl Hoerger and Earl Nisja gave the team depth, and junior Rob Bergman's high finishes led to their success.

The Michigan Tech women's basketball team showed continued improvement in only their third year of existence. They posted a winning record through the first half of the season and took the championship of the Keweenaw Invitational Tournament.

The Huskies played a much larger and tougher schedule in the winter of 77-78 than ever before. Even though the competition was stiffer the girls recorded more victories (nine) than any previous Tech squad. Included in this total is a first round win at the state tournament which was the first time the Huskies participated.

The future looks very bright for women's basketball at Tech as only one graduating senior leaves the highly experienced team.

Judy Audit was the Most Valuable Player, Louise Voght was Most Improved, and Jackie Oravitz earned the Scholastic Achievement Award. The Huskies finished with a record of 9-14.

The 1977-78 wrestling squad was much better than their 5-5-1 dual meet record suggests. All five losses came to nationally ranked teams and the Huskies themselves were ranked 20th at the end of the season. Highlights of the year included a second place finish at the Lumberjack Invitational and fourth at the Stevens Point Invitational.

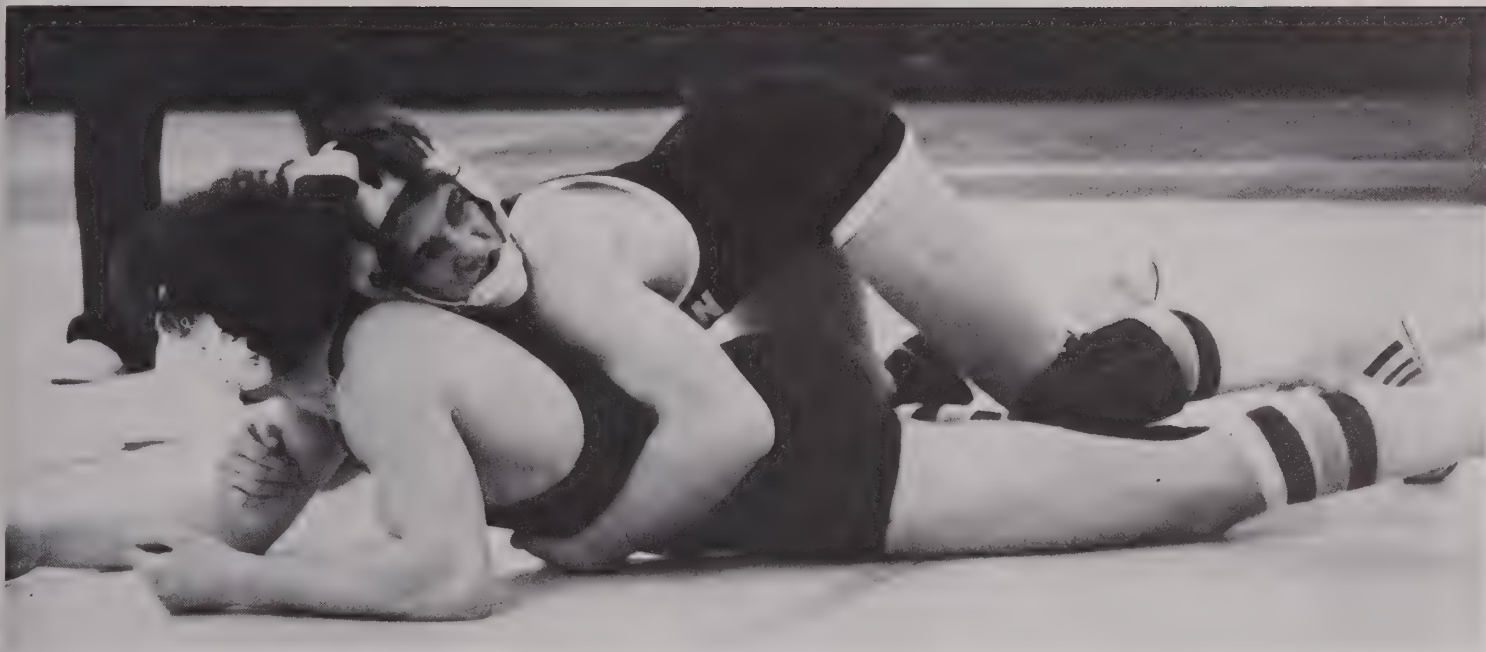

Jim Alberico placed second in the N.I.C. and John Fortier placed third, earning them a berth in the NCAA Division II championships where they both scored points. Fortier was also named outstanding wrestler at the Lumberjack Invitational.

Captain John Fortier, with a record of 24-7, earned the Dean Kerekas Award as the top point scorer; he was also voted the Most Valuable Player by his teammates. Alberico was the Most Improved Wrestler, Paul Kraft the Most Determined, and Keith Weishuhn won the Scholastic Achievement Award.

The chapter house is located on a 9 acre tract of land overlooking 1000 feet of lakefront property on Chassell Bay, enough area for outdoor sports, and for quiet moments. Sigma Rho, being the oldest fraternity at Michigan Tech, has had many years of brotherhood and can expect many more to keep alive the tradition of Sigma Rho.

Sigma Tau Gamma

Sigma Phi Epsilon, "The Red Door Fraternity," was founded November 1, 1901, in Richmond Virginia. Now with over 116,000 members and nearly 200 chapters across the nation, we are the third largest social fraternity in America. Ah yes, it was quite a collegiate year for the Sig Eps. Campus involvement included Sig Eps chairing the BSP, and MUB coffeehouses, vice-president and treasurer of Blue Key, Vice-President of IFC, four Sig Eps on the LODE editorial staff, and the skating Sig Eps took the Greek league hockey crown.

In the community we gave out a Thanksgiving basket, had a Christmas party for underprivileged children, ran Sports Spoofs, and set up a blood donor program at the house. Let's not forget the Playboy Smoker, Homecoming, Winter Carnival, South Seas party, and the brotherhood enjoyed when working and living together.

Phi Lambda Beta Sorority was founded May 25, 1958 as a local social sorority.

This past year has been a slow one for us, due to the fact that we are in the process of rebuilding our membership. Even though we are small, we found time to participate in campus activities. This year we participated in Homecoming activities with Phi Kappa Theta Fraternity and Winter Carnival activities with Alpha Kappa Psi Fraternity. Our Rush program was successful due to the help we received from the Fraternities on campus.

Even though we are small, we still found time for service projects. Among these were Christmas baskets for underprivileged families, the Halloween Party for local children and the Rock-a-thon.

Not only did we participate in Greek Week, but we also found the time to plan the activities.

Along with the difficulties we still enjoyed ourselves and we anticipate bigger and better things for the coming year.

Accounting

Major in this at Tech and you, too, can someday screw up some poor student's accounts.

Alumni

Not all Tech grads can be ultra-successful, but here's one example of a top Tech graduate:

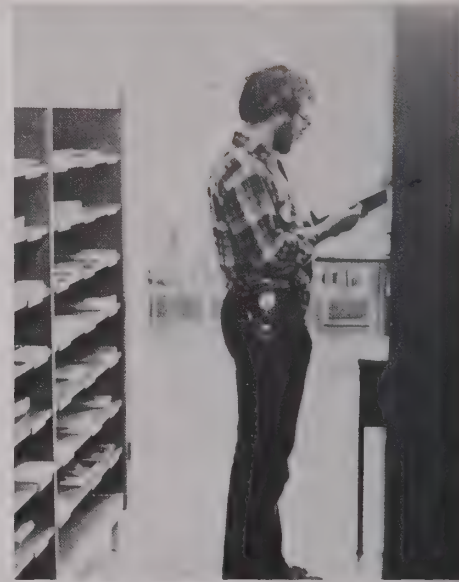

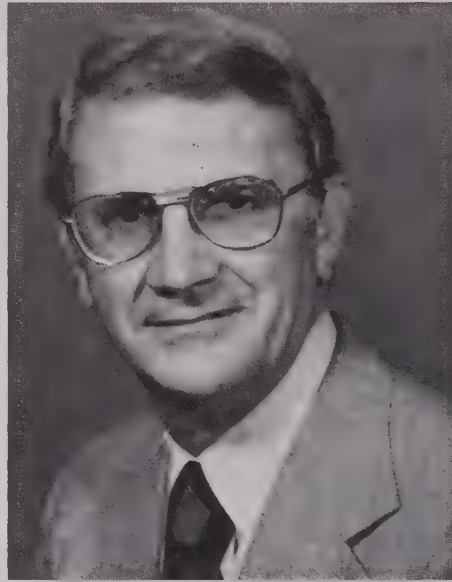

Martin J. Caserio was presented the Distinguished Alumnus Award during the Alumni Homecoming. The Distinguished Alumnus Award is the highest recognition the Alumni Association can confer on a member.

Caserio was born in Laurium. After graduating from Calumet High School, he enrolled at Michigan Tech where he earned the bachelor of science degree in metallurgical engineering in 1936. On campus he was a member of Tau Beta Pi, Kappa Delta Psi, Blue Key, Phi Kappa Phi, and Alpha Sigma Mu. He was also an honor graduate in the ROTC program.

He joined General Motors AC Spark Plug division at Flint in 1937, and except for wartime service with the US Army Corps of Engineers, his entire career has been with GM. He was appointed a group vice-president in October of 1975.

He was associated with the Michigan Tech Fund for nearly 20 years, and in 1975 he was appointed to Tech's Board of Control. In 1977 he was elected Chairman of the Board.

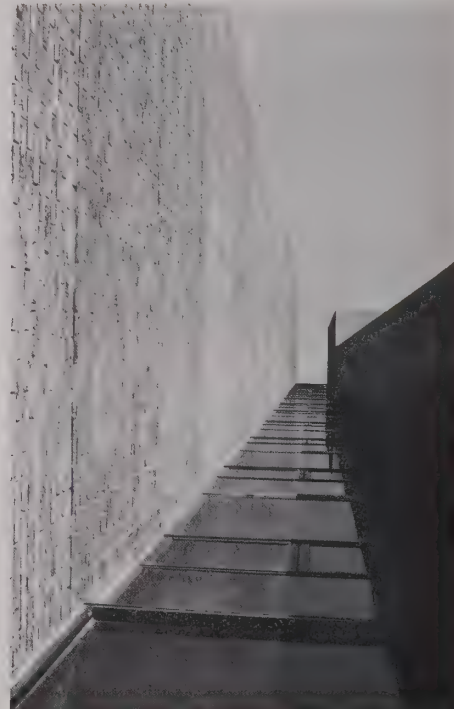

Michigan Tech presented him with the Honorary Doctor of Engineering degree in 1961 and its Distinguished Service Award in 1970.

Architecture

There's not much you can say about an upside-down rocket.

Attention

Are your shoes shined? Is your uniform in place? Then straighten up and salute! At least you're guaranteed a job after you graduate.

B-ball

Downstate, b-ball means basketball. All Tech students know that it really means broomball.

Bookstore

More famously known as the biggest rip-off of Tech's campus. The bookstore is supposed to carry textbooks for all classes held at Tech, which they usually do, but at outrageous prices. Unfortunately many times you walk to the back only to see the sign "Temporarily Out of Stock." Did you ever try cramming for a midterm because the book only came in two days before? The bookstore also carries other novelties — T-shirts, cards, and albums(?).

A big treat on campus is trying to get into the bookstore in the first three days of classes. The line is so long it winds around the cafeteria twice. But then what would we ever learn without textbooks, so in reality we can thank E. R. Lauren for our education.

The BULL SHEET is a publication of the Board of Student Publications under the auspices of the Michigan Tech LODGE

At the November commencement exercises, 250 degrees were given out. The speaker was Charles C. Huston, a consulting mining engineer, and owner of a consulting firm in Toronto, who also received an Honorary Degree of Engineering. The Distinguished Teacher Award was presented to Dr. Harold A. Evensen, associate professor of Mechanical Engineering, and Dr. Thomas H. Courtney, professor of Metallurgical Engineering, received the Faculty Researcher Award.

On May 20, Alice E. Hennessey, vice-president and corporate secretary of Boise Cascade Corporation, spoke to the over 900 graduates. She received an Honorary Doctor of Science degree. The Distinguished Service Award was presented to Russell Hoyer, chief executive officer of the U.P. Power Company, and retired chairman of the Board of Control.

Cross Country

The 1977 Cross Country team was Tech's best since the sport's reinstatement in 1971; a balanced mixture of seniors and underclassmen. Their success was a result of summer road races, long hours of training, two-a-day practices, and miles upon miles of running the Houghton Country hills.

After taking only fourth (out of six teams) in the opening meet, Tech's harriers called upon their sisu to run undefeated in the rest of their meets before the conference finale. Included in a highly respectable 27-5 record were dual wins over Lake Superior State, Lawrence, and an impressive championship in the 19 team Madison Area Invitational.

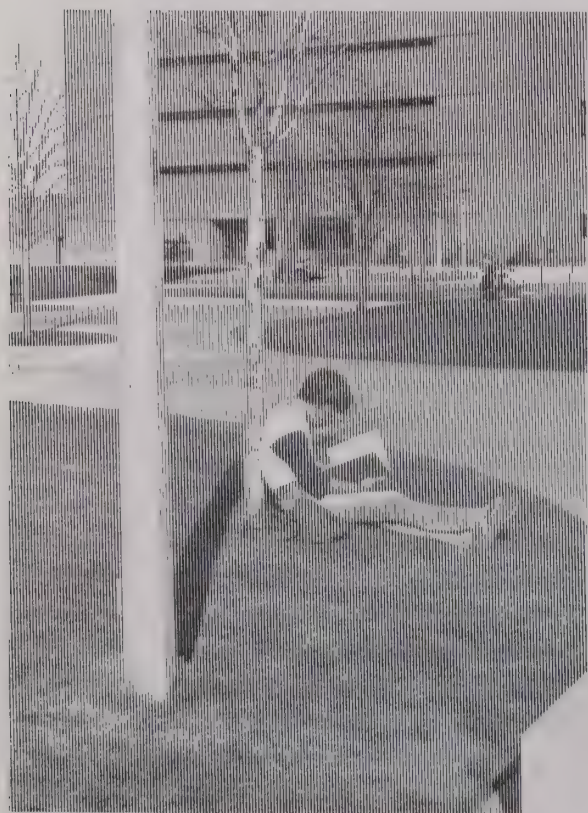

The 10,000 meter conference race was hosted by Tech at the Portage Lake Golf Course. Pre-meet favorite Mankato State took the honors, but the Huskies literally "ran their hearts out" to a close third place finish after not being expected to finish in the top five.

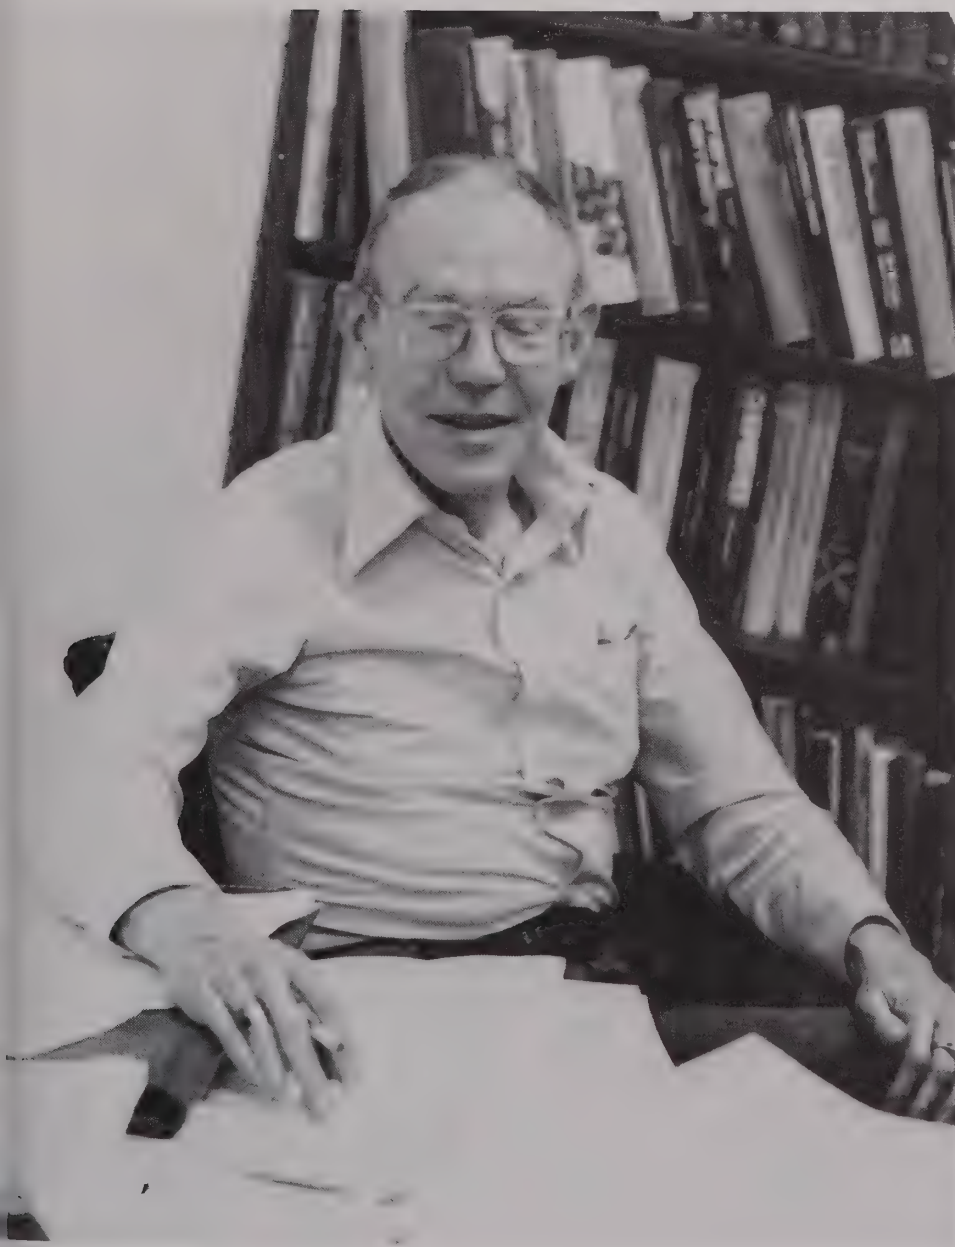

Led by senior Mike Revello (Most Valuable Runner) in 5th place, Tech put four runners in the top twenty, surprising everyone but themselves. Senior co-captain Warren Mandrell, saved his best effort for the final portions of the race and worked his way up to a 15th place finish. Such performers will be missed in the years ahead.

The outstanding freshmen, Tim Schuman and Mike Ostrenga, had excellent seasons and will be expected to pace the team next year. Consistently strong regulars Jim Perry, Ray Geist and Jim Ziegler, as well as several other returning runners will make certain Tech maintains its winning tradition in cross country.

Doc Berry

Doc Berry is the only person on campus who can make all the freshmen drop out before they even start. One of the fondest memories of the Doc is the time the electricity went out and he kept right on lecturing including writing on the board in the dark. Beware, Doc Berry rides again — and he never forgets a face.

Dorm Food

Deemed edible only by toothless wonders, but then why does everyone gain fifteen pounds during their freshman year?

EERC

*see next definition.

Empirical

Relying upon or derived from observation or experiment.

Engineering

This is a major part of Tech life. Engineering means something different to almost everyone. To the folks back home it means you are going to be able to drive a train. To the chemicals it means cut-throat studying, to the civils it means finding scoop, to the electricals it means trying to understand a foreign language, and to the mechanicals it means waiting for an elevator.

An engineering student is easy to spot. They have a calculator attached to their belt and are carrying fifteen books. They also have that certain look on their face which says "Why am I doing this to myself?" But after 4+ years it all pays off.

Engineering is problem solving, thinking and planning. One of the first major problems to be solved by all engineering students is which type of car to buy or how big of a stereo system. Engineering grows on you; after technical classes you'll find yourself applying your practical knowledge everywhere.

It really hits you when you go to a magic show and spend the entire time trying to logically and reasonably explain how these tricks are done. Engineering is a valuable tool none will be ready to give up — if they ever get it.

Also known as F, a typical grade at Tech. Next time you flunk, tell your Mom and Dad that you got an E-sharp.

<sup>2</sup>E-Sharp

Ask any of Tech's musicians if you want to know what this is.

Finnish

Hauskaa jouluaa ja onnellista uutta vuotta.

Fort Smith

The top floor of the Administration Building, where our commander-in-chief makes life-and-death decisions about how much YOUR tuition will be next year.

Fusball

More fun than pinball, especially when you're down by three pitchers. But to other people, it's an art; if you can't control the table for at least six yours, you're not an artist.

G

Golf

We have an incredibly short golf season here at Tech. To compete with other schools is almost an impossibility because of the short Fall. But the team is getting larger every year and someday soon they may be competitive.

Greeks

A lot of people get down on Greeks, but it's mostly bad PR. Being Greek gives you a great sense of belonging while still being encouraged to be yourself. It's a good way to learn leadership and responsibility, and a great way to meet a lot of nice people.

H

Hockey

Something to look forward to on those long winter weeks. Standing in the midst of a third of the student body with everyone screaming and getting rowdy does a lot for thawing those icy winter quarters.

Checking, the term for smashing your opponent off his skates in any way possible, is perfectly legal. Anything the refs don't see is also legal, and will give rise to many altercations which are referred to in hockey lingo as roughing. Usually the rougher will end up in the penalty box watching the rough-ee's team force his teammates to skate like mad, trying to cover for the rough-er's lost presence.

But here Tech comes alive; while skating one man short Tech has managed to pump home six short-handed goals. This is a great way to get on your opponents' nerves, who were anticipating a power-play goal for themselves.

A seat near the ice is recommended, not necessarily behind the bench but close enough to hear the players shout signals. "PUCK-PUCK-PUCK!!!" shouted by someone staring down an open net is the most nerve-ripping cry known to mankind, as far as urgency goes. Our favorite remark was made by a Husky to an opponent who had broken away from him and was bearing down ice all alone on the Tech goalie. Unable to catch him or trip him up, he screamed from behind, "Wait-a-minute-wait-a-minute!!!" The guy didn't score, his concentration somewhat interrupted.

Homecoming

Homecoming at Tech was a good time for all those who stayed.

The events started with something new — The Queens' Superstars contest. The five queen candidates competed against one another in four events — a football throw, egg toss, obstacle course, and a penny hunt — with Annette Koester winning.

Thursday evening found the Dee Stadium crowded with the traditional Hobo Mixer. The mixer was a big success, too big if you were trying to get beer.

Friday morning classes were crowded as usual; the loyal few were there in body only. Friday afternoon started with the Hobo luncheon, certainly not a reminder of Mom's good home cooking. Special events took place all afternoon — the bed race, king and queen competition, chugging, pyramids, and tug-of-war. By this time most of the liquor stores were empty — all the booze was either on the streets or being hoarded for Saturday's football game.

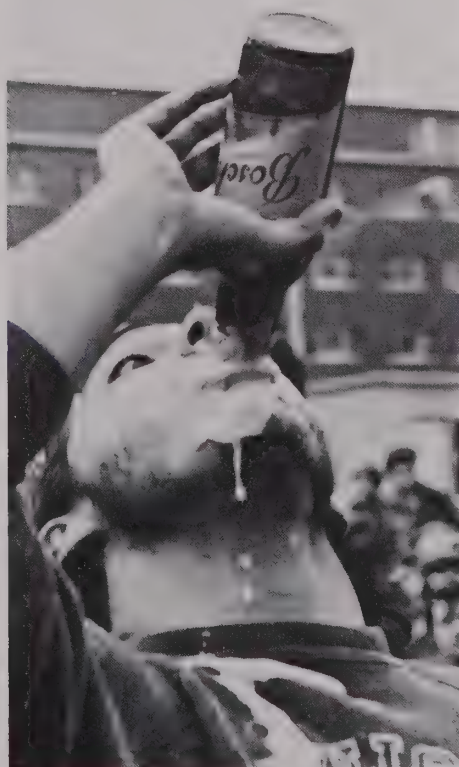

There were skits Friday night followed by the annual Homecoming concert. This year the featured band was Vixen; an all-girl band attended by an all-male audience.

The hobo parade was Saturday morning. The weather was wet and freezing, yet the event still drew a large crowd. The hobo cars which were in evidence all week around Houghton lined up in Hancock for the start. Some were pushed, some were driven, but almost all of them made it down the street — through sheer determination or fantastic engineering. The parade wandered through Hancock and Houghton, tying up traffic.

The football game was played in the afternoon, with Tech losing to Morris, 27-10. At halftime, Annette Koester, a freshman in Mechanical Engineering from Frankenmuth, was announced as the 1977 Homecoming Queen. She was sponsored by Arctic Attic.

On Saturday night there were numerous parties to finish off a perfect weekend. Sunday was named "Recovery Day," or for those who didn't have so much to recover from, it was "Cleanup Day."

Ice

There's so much ice around here that the Hockey Huskies don't bother going to the Ice Arena for practice — they play in the streets.

Inclement Weather

All weather in Houghton between September 1 and August 30.

Intramurals

This is one of the best ways to keep in shape while having fun. A large majority of Tech students participate in at least one intramural sport, and there is such a large variety offered that there really is something for everyone.

J

Jazz

Isn't that a pro basketball team in Louisiana? No, it's the hottest item in music since punk rock. Jazz has been around a while, and if you've been to any of Tech's great jazz concerts, you'll agree it will probably be around for some time to come.

Jeans

They used to be the uniform here at Tech. Now that there are more girls and guys dressing up, jeans are fading.

Job Hunting

The first place most seniors look to is the Placement Office, found on the ground floor of the Ad. Building. Early reports indicate that 875 seniors talked to recruiters representing over 800 companies, for an average of 12 interviews each. Over 3000 plant trips were taken, and around 950 job offers received.

And then again, for all the non-engineers, there's the U.S. Postal Service.

K

K-Day

Everyone thought it was crazy — the K-Day whistle being blown Wednesday at noon. The skies were cloudy as they had been all week, and it was cold! But shortly after the whistle blew, God looked down on his hard working toots and decided that they needed a break. The sun came shining through for what turned out to be a beautiful K-Day.

One and all know the story of the purpose of K-Day, a picnic for the faculty and students to mingle while observing the beautiful colors of the Keweenaw. Everyone needs a break from classes for an afternoon and K-Day provides it.

What you find at K-Day are frisbees, footballs and everyone having a good time. There are always the typical eats — hot dogs and chips — but this year there was an added twist, the Conscious Stomach provided vegetarian tacos.

There's always plenty of ale and plenty of cops. K-Day is a tradition at Michigan Tech, a tradition of good times and fun.

Knowledge

As Sir Francis Bacon once said, "Knowledge is power." Now, if only all you engineers could find a way to convert our textbooks into energy.

Laundry

If you don't go home at least once a month, you're sunk; you'll have to do it yourself. Let's see, whites in cold water, bright colors in hot, or is it the other way around? Mom, HELP!!

Liberal Arts

Did you know that there are over 70 liberal arts students on Tech's campus? And no, they're not too dumb to be engineers. After all, someone's got to write instructions for all those wonderful machines you engineers are going to build, and among other things, that's what the Technical Communications students are learning to do. Also, liberal arts is great for pre-law and pre-med students, and there are even some history and language students.

Lode

Judging from the responses to the editorials, students obviously read more than the cartoon page. Good job, Dean.

Long Johns

Indispensible for snow statue detail (do yours have a trap door?).

M

Males

There's too many of them (or is it there's not enough?).

Memorial Union Board

These wonderful people are responsible for coffeehouses, Tech Arts Festival, Tech Carney, and the great paint job in the cafeteria area of the Union.

MilBall

You don't have to be in ROTC to enjoy a formal dance. It just happens to be sponsored by the military groups here at Tech.

N

Necking

Ductile materials in tension.

Night Life

Fraternity parties, movies in Fisher, and the bars — who could ask for more?

Noise

Stereos turned up so far your dishes rattle in the cupboard, motorcycles roaring by, the couple next door having a mild disagreement, and the local radio stations. The only way to get attention any more is to try to tell someone a secret.

North

We're not as far as the North Pole, but we're not exactly in the tropics, either. Tech's latitude is  $47.06^\circ$ , which compares with Quebec City, Budapest, Zurich, and Tacoma, Washington. In contrast, London is  $51.50^\circ$  and Paris is  $48.75^\circ$ .

Outdoors

You know the old saying — If you seek a pleasant peninsula, look about you — well, it's true.

Pinball

Just as habit-forming as fussball (see fussball) but just watching a "pinball Wizard" is fun, too. How much body English can be used before the machine tilts? You get less play for your money nowadays, but that's true of everything else, too.

Pits

Only someone who's lived in them could describe it, but to those of us who have walked by and stared in the windows at them, even our three-man closets looked pretty luxurious.

Plumb-bob

A four-inch brass weight which is to be centered over the head of a pin in a 50 mph wind on the stamp sands.

Public Safety

Famous for leaving those pink computer cards on your car.

Puck

That black cylinder that hockey players shoot across the ice, usually found at the end of a stick or in the goal.

Quadratic Equation

Quarts and Quarts of Beer

A popular thing to spend time and money on.

R

Registration

Get in line, give your name, get the green form, correct the green form, get in another line, hand the green form in, receive your bill and a brown computer card, fill in the brown card, sign your check, get in line, pay your bill, get your schedule. All this rigmarole just to go broke and get some class that you're going to drop in six weeks anyway.

Rifle

The team activities started in early October with try-out sessions where over forty students participated.

A warm-up road trip to the Univ. of Kentucky Tournament started the season. The team placed fifth out of nine teams and gained good experience shooting with some of the best riflemen in the U.S. On the same trip they narrowly lost a shoulder-to-shoulder match with Eastern Michigan.

In January the Huskies competed in the sixth Univ. of Minnesota Invitational. Tech placed second behind Minnesota in a field of 17 teams. Captain Darwin Moon shot a career high 548 (of 600) and took third place individual honors.

On the following weekend the team traveled to the Intercollegiate National Championship Sectionals. There Tech won the conventional match while Eastern won the international style match. Andy Donato and Sam Whitford both gave very strong individual performances to lead the team.

In April the Huskies hosted a tournament where Karen Remer, Tom Ramage, Moon and Whitford won both team matches over several other teams. The season ended with a trip to Lake Superior State where the Huskies placed first of three teams.

Only splits with Eastern and Minnesota marred the team's perfect record, and Coach Jim Foster is looking forward to next year with eight letterwinners returning.

Soccer

The annual soccer tournament sponsored by the MTU Soccer Club was as popular as ever, with 61 teams of 11 players each participating.

In Class C, the women's division, the Skinned Knee Brigade defeated April Fool's 1-0 on a goal by Pam Bosio.

Doomsday III was defeated by Can Am II in Class B competition on Chris Ferguson's last-second penalty kick.

The most competitive division, Class C, showed Crazy Legs being blanked by Can Am I in a game with heated action.

First place in each division was rewarded with a half-barrel.

Splunge

An appropriate word to use with respect to your next computer program. This word should only be used just after the program has failed for the third time and just before you beat your brains out.

Spring Fever

You can tell someone has spring fever when they run around in their shirt sleeves in 40-degree weather.

Star Wars

Did the bars in Star Wars remind you of Houghton's?

TAF

Spring brings the Tech Arts Festival: here students, faculty, and professionals demonstrate their talents. The displays consisted of paintings, photographs, wall hangings and wood carvings. There were also poems and short stories. Most of the pieces were done by Tech students or local high school students. The professionals who performed here were folk guitarist David Parker and mime Michael Hennessy.

Thons

A very popular way of raising money, as in Dance-a-thon and Rock-a-thon.

"Dance for Those Who Can't" was the theme for the 79 couples who danced for 30 hours on April 7-9. They helped raise $12055 for Muscular Dystrophy victims. The hours were enlivened by goldfish eating contests, dance lessons, live bands, and disco provided by WNTR.

Inter-Fraternity Council sponsored a Rock-a-thon on April 21 in the window of Ed Haas' store in downtown Houghton. This effort raised money to send Copper Country representatives to the Special Olympics held in Marquette and Mt. Pleasant. People in the rocking chairs included Bob Olson from WMPL, Tech Hockey players, and city manager Ray Kestner.

Toot

If you haven't heard by now, that's what you are if you're a Tech undergrad.

U

Ulcer

We want to share with you our own proven method for getting an ulcer.

Start: Week 1 — you spend five hours rearranging your schedule so you don't have three labs at the same time only to find that two classes have been cancelled due to lack of interest, two that you need to graduate.

Upon entering your first class you find that you're already three weeks behind — it's just review material you've never seen before. You also discover after waiting for three hours to get into the bookstore that none of your books are in.

You have two major tests on Friday back to back; your pet fish died because you left them in the care of your little brother. Friday night tops it off when you go downtown with your roommate and get wasted — you don't get sick, but he does — on your clothes.

Oh well, the cure is to relax and forget your problems . until Monday.

Unpack

When moving into a three man room don't even bother. It is the process of unfolding and hanging up, not a very exciting activity especially when you're someplace you don't want to be.

Violence

The assault rate at Tech is low;
we keep our violence on the ice.

Wapituli

Also known as a "garbage-can party." Participants bring fresh fruit, punch, ice, and of course, bottles of booze. No schnapps, please.

Winter Carnival

The theme of Winter Carnival was Chiller Thrillers. In January the campus became dotted with mounds of snow surrounded by snow fencing. The statues that would eventually be thrilling everyone were underway. However, for most of the participants in statue, who all put in long hours, the real thrill came when they got their winter term grades and saw how low they were. At least Winter Carnival is only once a year and basically it is a lot of fun.

The queen competition was tough this year, and Gwen Brown really worked to attain her title. She is a freshman in technical communications. Tammy Ashley, first runner-up, tied with Michele Wercinski for Miss Congeniality.

Of course there were the usual special events: dog sled, snow shoeing, skating and broomball. Not many people realize what it takes to enter these events. After playing broomball you can find new bruises for weeks. Some people finished the events standing, others end them face down on the snow and ice.

The sad part of Winter Carnival this year was the hockey series. Fans came from far and near to see their favorite Huskies. Even though it was a disappointment to see them lose the support was still tremendous. The attendance was amazing (it wasn't announced on Friday night — maybe the fire marshall would have been upset?). The scores of the games — 2-1 and 3-0 in favor of Denver — did not show the hard work of the Huskies. The most valuable player, who really deserved it, was Denver's goalie, Ernie Glanville.

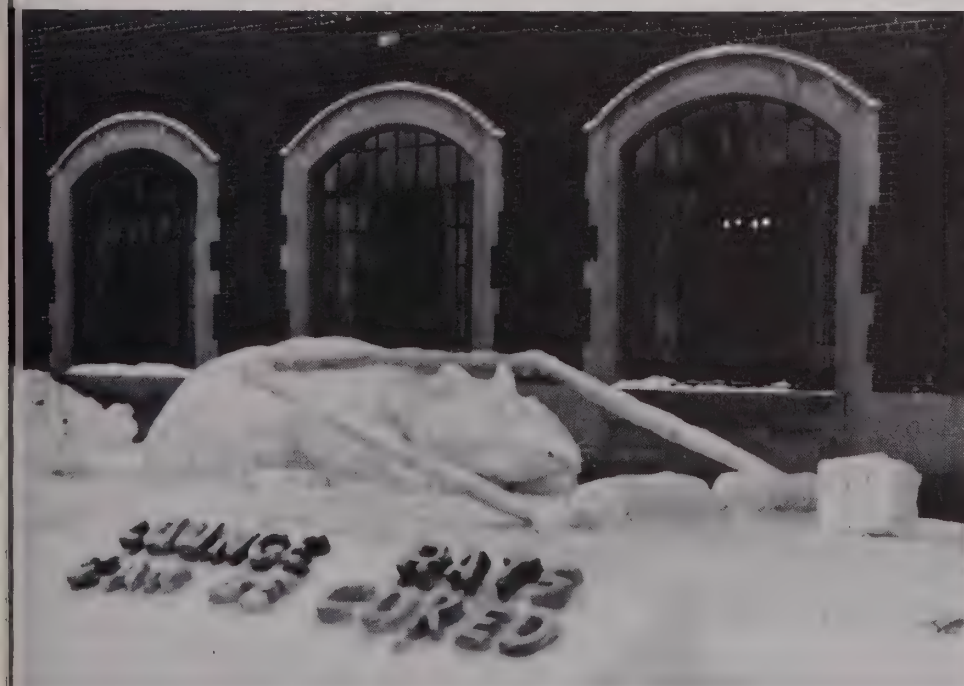

Some of the traditional happenings of Carnival are the annual chili run by the Library, freezing all night trying to get the statue done by 9:00 a.m., finding warmth by some means or another, greeting guests, taking a tour of the statues, and attending the Sno-Ball. Each student goes about enjoying Carnival in his own way, and the only real losers are the students who feel it's necessary to leave Houghton during one of the best times of their college life. Winning during Carnival takes a lot of effort, and the following groups, showed they had what it takes to win:

The Sammy Award for one Nighters: Rammitt Inn A.

Critical Memorandum

Now is the time all those years of hard studying at the Library will finally pay off. Those long nights wearing your elbows ragged turning the endless pages of the Encyclopedia of Fine Wines, the Dictionary of Culinary Delights, Big Jon's Collection of Favorite Cocktails, the Book of Better Beers, and the Sociological Benefits and Educational Insights of the Consumption of  $C_2H_5OH$ .

It's on to bigger and better reasons for drinking. Big Jon, the staff and management of the Library would like to wish all the 1978 Graduates a full glass of happiness and a long drink of life.
